Ute Lemper Sings the Michael Nyman Songbook. Musical Concerts And Videos (Experimental, New Age, Etc.). 54 mins. Video Released Oct. 1993. Michael Nyman. Directed by Volker Schlondorff. Contemporary music's leading composer, Michael Nyman comes to video for the first time in "The Michael Nyman Songbook," a collaboration with Ute Lemper. The program was filmed by German film director Volker Schlondorff ("The Tin Drum") during Ute Lemper's 1992 concert performance of Nyman's music at Hamburg's Musikhalle. These songs include settings of a letter by Mozart, two texts from the surrealist poet Rimbaud, & (as the centerpiece) six songs by Paul Celan, a German poet whose works testify to the anguish of the holocaust survivor. This collaboration between Lemper, Nyman & Schlondorff is a fascinating exploration of these poems & their creators. PolyGram Videos. VHS, Hi-Fi Stereo. (UPC: 4400712563) $29.95; Laser, DDD, 1 side. Vampyr. Tr. of Vampires. (1932). B&W. 75 mins. (German, Subtitled: English). Video Released Jul. 2008. Directed by Carl Theodor Dreyer. With Vampyr, Danish filmmaker Carl Theodor Dreyer's brilliance at achieving mesmerizing atmosphere and austere, profoundly unsettling imagery (as in The Passion of Joan of Arc and Day of Wrath) was for once applied to the horror genre. Yet the result - concerning an occult student assailed by various supernatural haunts and local evildoers at an inn outside Paris - is nearly unclassifiable, a host of stunning camera and editing tricks and densely layered sounds creating a mood of dreamlike terror. With its roiling fogs, ominous scythes, and foreboding echoes, Vampyr is one of cinema's great nightmares. Criterion Collection. DVD. (ISBN: 978-1-60465-046-4(X), UPC: 7 1551503042 7) $39.95.

Vanity Fair. (2004). Color. 141 mins. CC PG13. (Dubbed: French). Video Released 2004. Directed by Mira Nair. Featuring Reese Witherspoon, James Purefoy, Jim Broadbent, Romola Garai, Rhys Ifans. William Makepeace Thackeray's witty assessment of the British class system, as seen through the experiences of one young woman, is brought to the screen with some serious star power in this period comedy drama. Becky Sharp (Reese Witherspoon) is a bright and ambitious girl born to a poor British family. Becky is determined to make something of herself however she can, and after accepting a job as a nanny for the children of the powerful and aristocratic Sir Pitt Crawley (Bob Hoskins), she wastes no time ingratiating herself with the family. Pretty Becky catches the eye of Crawley's handsome and eligible son Rawdon (James Purefoy), and becomes chummy with sharp-tongued Aunt Matilda (Eileen Atkins). Between the two of them, Becky is introduced to London's most exclusive social circle, where she becomes re-acquainted with Amelia Sedley (Romola Garai), a former school chum who is amused by Becky's efforts to scale the ladder of social influence. Becky weds Rawdon, but following initial happiness, the social and economic stability she dreamed of begins to collapse when he begins drowning his troubles in gambling and drink, and soon she turns to the powerful Marquess of Steyne (Gabriel Byrne) for support. Meanwhile, Amelia's fortunes fall even harder following the death of her husband. Universal Studios Home Video, Inc. DVD. $29.98.

Walking Tall. (2004). Color. 86 mins. CC PG13. (Dubbed: Spanish, French). Video Released 2004. Directed by Kevin Bray. Featuring Rock, Kristen Wilson, Neal McDonough, Johnny Knoxville. A man fights to bring decency and the rule of law back to his hometown in this action drama. Chris Vaughn (The Rock) left his home in Washington State's timber country to join the Army, where he distinguished himself as a member of the Special Forces. When his hitch is over, Vaughn decides to return home to help run the family business, a sawmill, but he soon makes the unpleasant discovery that things aren't what they once were. Vaughn learns that the town's lumber industry has all but dried up, and an old high school buddy, Jay Hamilton (Neal McDonough), has turned the city into a den of vice, running a large gambling casino and strip club while selling drugs and women on the side. Angry at this turn of events, and frustrated by local law enforcement officials who are willing to ignore Hamilton's crimes in exchange for kickbacks, Vaughn decides to run for sheriff, and with the help of another old friend, Ray Templeton (Johnny Knoxville), he wins the election. But Hamilton doesn't take kindly to Vaughn's attempts to clean up the town, and Vaughn discovers Hamilton's henchmen are willing to target his friends, his family, and the woman he loves (Ashley Scott) in order to have their way. Way Past Cool. (2000). Color. 96 mins. CC R. (Subtitled: Spanish). Video Released 2000. Directed by Adam Davidson. Featuring Wayne Collins, Kareem Woods, Terrence Williams, Luchisha Evans. It's about teen and preteen gang members in Oakland, but in tone and temperament it's far from the usual homeboy melodrama. The violence is here all right, but refracted through the eyes of boys who are still young enough to imagine their 'hood as a garden of unearthly delights. The mayhem and sorrow are doubly affecting because the kids, played mostly by nonactors, are rapidly losing a childhood they never really had. Davidson pays tribute to their dreams by imparting an almost tender lyricism. It's a magical little movie about a most unmagical subject. Artisan Entertainment. DVD. $19.98.

Wendigo. (2001). Color. 91 mins. CC R. Video Released 2001. Patricia Clarkson, Jake Weber, Erik Per Sullivan, John Speredakos, Christopher Wynkoop. Directed by Larry Fessenden. George is a high-strung professional photographer who is starting to unravel from the stress of his work with a Manhattan advertising agency. Needing some time away from the city, Jake, his wife Kim, and their son Miles head to upstate New York to take in the winter sights. George accidentally hits and severely injures a deer that ran onto the icy road on the ride up; after George stops to inspect the damage, he's confronted by an angry local named Otis who flies into a rage, telling George that he and his fellow hunters had been tracking the deer for some time. An argument breaks out, which leaves George feeling deeply shaken. When George and Kim arrive at their cabin, they discover that it's next door to Otis' property, and they soon find that adark presence seems to have taken over the cottage. When they had stopped at a store en route to the cabin, a shopkeeper told Miles about the legend of the Wendigo, a beast from Indian folklore who is half-man, half-deer, and can change itself at will. Who killed fat & jolly but crippled Mr. Otis on the 3rd floor of his rooming house? All the boarders are under suspicion, but sinister Mr. Collins who says little, speaks with a German accent when he does talk, & kicks cats is probably guilty. Or is he? A fine live TV whodunnit. Video Yesteryear. VHS. (Order #: 1549) $12.95.

Westinghouse Studio One: They Came to Baghdad. Based on a story by Agatha Christie. (1952). Television Series. Mystery And Suspense. B&W. 60 mins. Richard Kiley, June Dayton, Bramwell Fletcher. Featuring Betty Furness. Mistaken identity places a British woman, prone to telling outrageous lies, amidst a nest of spies & intrigue in the Middle East. Agatha Christie's deft writing is evident in the constant plot twists & clever hidden code found at the very end. A live-TV gunfight (an old woman can't get her gun out of her purse) & a through-the-elevator-shaft camera angle so well done, the director used it three times during the show, to add to the fun. Video Yesteryear. VHS. (Order #: 1624) $12.95.

Westinghouse Studio One: Treasure Island. Based on a story by Robert Louis Stevenson. (1952). Drama. Television Series. B&W. 60 mins. Video Released 1989. Francis L. Whale Rider. (2002). Color. 105 mins. CC PG13. (Subtitled: Spanish). Video Released 2002. Directed by Niki Caro. Featuring Keisha Castle-Hughes, Clifford Curtis, Vicky Haughton, Rawiri Paratene. On the eastern coast of New Zealand, the Whangara people believe their ancestor Paikea was saved from drowning by riding home on the back of a whale. The tribal group has since granted leadership positions to the first-born males, believing them to be descendants of Paikea. This tradition is challenged when a young mother dies in childbirth along with her newborn male son. His twin sister manages to survive and the father (Cliff Curtis) runs off, overwhelmed with grief. The little girl, Pai (Keisha Castle-Hughes), is brought up by stubborn grandfather Koro (Rawiri Paratene) and gentle grandmother Nanny (Vicky Haughton). Koro, the chief of their tribe, is disappointed because Pai's twin brother was supposed to be the next leader. Trying to find the proper successor, he attempts to organize a leadership group amongst the local boys while Pai enlists the help of her has-been uncle Rawiri (Grant Roa) to teach herself the art of chiefdom. She appears to possess a natural leadership ability and adventurous spirit that draws her to the proliferation of her faltering tribe. Alberto Sordi, Brunella Bovo, Leopoldo Trieste, Giulietta Masina. Directed by Federico Fellini. Every week in Italy, millions eagerly await the publication of fumetti: magazines which tell highly escapist, romantic tales in comic-book style, but with photographs in place of cartoons. Between the covers of the fumetti exists an enticing fantasy world completely divorced from reality. However, to those who avidly devour the fumetti, this world seems realistic & believable because it's depicted in photographs. The fumetti & its popularity, particularly among the Italian lower classes, is the subject of this sharp, knowing, very funny farce which is the great Federico Fellini's first solo directing assignment. Video Yesteryear. VHS. (Order #: 1828) $24.95.

The Wiz Kid. Comedy. PG. Martin Forbes, Gary Forbes, H. Lauterbach, U. Kienner, Richard Rogler. Bodo knows computers & DNA gene-splicing, quantum physics & cloning, too. Not bad for the world's smartest 14-year old genius-whiz-kid! The problem is - brainy Bodo is in love with Nova, the rock singer girlfriend of the school's meanest bully. Poor brilliant Bodo lives alone in his hyper-intelligent world. Only his own creations, a robot monkey & a cylinder-droid, can cheer him up. But love conquers all, as even the Einstein-mind of Bodo can't resist the cutest girl in school. But how to get her? To the lab we go! Before you can say "clone a suaver, hipper Bodo" - we've got two genius' on our hands! The real Bodo can only watch as his cloned "bro" takes on the bullies, woos the girl, rocks out - heck, he even drives the getaway car! In the end Bodo triumphs - but which one is it??. Young Dr. Freud. (1976). B&W. 98 mins. (Narrated: German. Subtitled: English). Video Released 2004. Directed by Axel Corti. Featuring Karlheinz Hackl, Sylvia Haider, Brigitte Swoboda, Jacques Alric, Maria Urban, Karl Merkatz, Guido Wieland. Examines the life of the father of psychoanalysis through the lens of his own ground-breaking theories. Questioning the character of Sigmund Freud at integral points in his development, director Axel Corti and screenwriter Georg Stephan Troller invert the psychoanalytic model and place the analyst in the position of analysand. From Freud's early childhood, where his family encounters aggressive anti-Semitism, to his student years in Vienna, where he studies the reproductive faculties of eels, the film probes deeply into the ways in which Freud's own experiences and unconscious processes may have inspired his influential and persistently controversial ideas. 13 Going on 30. (2004). Color. 98 mins. CC PG13. (Dubbed: French). Video Released 2004. Directed by Gary Winick. Featuring Jennifer Garner, Andy Serkis, Judy Greer, Mark Ruffalo. Thirteen-year-old Jenna (Shana Dowdeswell) has had enough with the trials of adolescence. In addition to being saddled with thoroughly annoying parents, she falls victim to one of the dangers of playing Seven Minutes in Heaven with the coolest kids in school: being stranded without a willing make-out partner. Humiliated, Jenna goes to bed wishing she could skip the whole adolescence bit and move straight into adulthood, and miraculously wakes just weeks away from her 30th birthday. Of course, a lot has changed since going to bed the night before, not the least of which being an impressive set of womanly curves. The new, older Jenna (Jennifer Garner) is a successful magazine editor with friends in high places and a lion's share of potential suitors. The problem is that her mind hasn't matured with her body; Jenna not only finds living on her own more terrifying than cool, but is quick to dismiss any male over the age of 14 as "gross." Half excited, half mortified, Jenna seeks out her childhood best friend (Mark Ruffalo), whom she had spurned as a teenager in an effort to join the popular crowd. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment. DVD. $28.95; VHS.

1978 Cotton Bowl: Notre Dame vs. Texas. (2004). Color. 155 mins. CC NR. Video Released 2004. Featuring Earl Campbell, Joe Montana. Notre Dame dominates the 1978 Cotton Bowl game, as they leapfrog from number five in the polls to become the national champions after this impressive victory. Undefeated Texas enters the game ranked number one in the country, led by Heisman Trophy winner Earl Campbell. Notre Dame turned down many bowl invitations to face the Longhorns for a chance at winning the national championship. Notre Dame?s two top rushers, Jerome Heavens and Vagas Ferguson, complement future NFL legend Joe Montana?s passing game. This vintage game is a treasure for all football fans, as it also contains pre-game and post-game segments that will immerse you in the feeling of a past era. The pre-game consists of nine minutes of starting lineup introductions by broadcaster Don Criqui, as the players run through a gauntlet of fans lined up on the field. An on-field interview with Notre Dame head coach Dan Devine wraps up the broadcast as he makes his case for Notre Dame to be voted national champions. Entertainment Software, Inc. DVD. $24.95.

24 Hour Party People. (2002). Color. 113 mins. CC R. Video Released 2002. Steve Coogan, Lennie James, Shirley Henderson, Andy Serkis, Sean Harris. Directed by Michael Winterbottom. A docudrama on the Manchester music scene of the 1980s and '90s, 24 Hour Party People traces the rise and fall of bands like Joy Division, New Order, and Happy Mondays—bands whose success in the U.S. was limited, but whose impact in Europe (and England in particular) was phenomenal. It all centers around the record label that spawned these bands, Factory Records, and its impresario Tony Wilson, a man both ludicrous in his self-absorption and brilliant in his willingness to go out on a limb for bands he likes. The movie communicates what was great about this time without any false majesty—the squalor and disasters are as crucial to this portrait as the wild successes. MGM/UA Home Video. DVD.; VHS.

28 Up. (1984). Documentaries (Feature Films). 136 mins. Directed by Michael Apted. Beginning in 1964, Apted turned his camera on a group of 7-year-old boys & girls from both wealthy & poor families in England, recording their thoughts, hopes & dreams with revealing interviews. He then returned to film these same children every seven years, until the age of 28; all of their most personal moments, from the rapture of discovered love to the despair of dreams long forgotten, are brought vividly to life, played out before the viewer with striking emotional power. A moving & utterly memorable work. Facets Multimedia, Inc. VHS. (Order #: S14291) $19.98.

28 Up. (1984). Documentaries (Feature Films). Color. 136 mins. Video Released Jul. 1991. Directed by Michael Apted. This fascinating look at 14 children as they become adults was made by filmmaker Michael Apted who later made "Coal Miner's Daughter" & "Gorky Park." The first installment, when the kids were 7, originally appeared on television as a series & was so well-loved that he went on to make sequel series of the children when they were 14, 21 & 28. As it appears now, the film is a composite of the four studies which enables us to watch a progression as these kids grow up, fulfill their dreams or don't, rebel & conform, become who they are going to be & honestly discuss their ambitions, expectations, & philosophies about life. 8MM. Mystery And Suspense. Color. 123 mins. CC R. (Subtitled: Spanish). Video Released Dec. 1999. Nicolas Cage, Catherine Keener, Joaquin Phoenix. Directed by Joel Schumacher. Tom Welles is a surveillance specialist - what used to be known as a "private eye" - but his version of the profession is hardly the stuff of which legends are made. He has a modest, home-based practice in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, where he lives an existence remarkable only for its normalcy with his wife Amy & baby daughter, Cindy. Respected but still waiting for a big break that will improve his professional status, Welles spends most of his time on routine cases involving unfaithful spouses & the like. Nothing too dangerous, nor too threatening.until a small, innocuous-looking plastic reel of film turns Welles' life upside down, sending him down a sordid & terrifying path into society's darkest corners. From the lurid sidewalks of L.A.'s Hollywood Boulevard to the squalor of New York City's meat-packing district, we follow Welles as he relentlessly pursues a bizarre trail of graphic & disturbing evidence to determine the fate of a complete stranger - a girl who begins to haunt his imagination & conscience. Aided in his obsession by a streetwise adult bookstore clerk, Max, Welles drifts away from his wife, family & former life. What Welles learns is beyond his worst nightmare, as he comes to realize how deadly a small reel of eight millimeter film can be. Sony Pictures Home Entertainment. VHS. (Order #: 03814, UPC: 0 4339603814 1) $9.95; DVD. (Order #: 02854, UPC: 0 4339602854 8) $19.95.
